

The staging platform located within the wheel friendly plaza, enclosed in the unique angles of the amphitheater, also lends itself as an ideal setting for community activities. The platform will not only be used for wheeled activities, but as a stage for events and concerts, making this space truly multi-use.